President's Notes

Hello club members,

A quick apology to Ed. I let the holidays delay me getting the 'notes' to him so the late arrival is my fault. I'm writing these comments on Dec. 31st!

I hope that you've enjoyed the holidays!

We have had a very good year financially and with the ability to attend various events as a club. I hope we can continue the growth and participation as we move into 2025.

Please help get things rolling by renewing your membership. It will be much easier for Linda if we start now and not wait until spring with all of the 'show' preparation and purchasing that we need to do by then.

Special thanks again to all of the officers for all of their work and efforts for the club and especially the show, which again will be in June this year. Also, put on your calendar reminders of our Birthday day in April and the annual show in June.

Please take a minute to tell other car groups and friends so we can increase interest and attention for both of those events.

Officers will be visiting current sponsors and hoping that they will stay with us through another year.

CLUB meeting January 2nd...day after tomorrow at Red Zone, hope you make it.

Happy New Year.

-John -

Meeting Minutes – (somewhat)

Happy New Year!

(Ed is subbing for Todd this time)

From the Christmas Party- December 14th.

David Flett called the meeting to order at 6:00 pm. The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited and observed. Sprague Fleming let us in prayer.

Ronnie Brown made a motion to re-elect current officers for 2025...it was seconded by most all (except by Sprague, of course).

So, we will have the same officers to start the new year. Dennis indicated he will need to step down as MCA rep soon.

Also, there is some debate as to when our June show is... this will need to be determined at future meeting(s).

Other than that, we had a nice dinner with generous gifts for Christmas Is For Kids... and H-O-R-S-E.

(See pics in announcements)

That's it for now.

See you at the January meeting.
